SUMMARY OF SCHEDULED MEETINGS

Thursday, 11 November 1993

SECURITY COUNCIL

3312th meeting

Letters dated 20 and 23 December 1991, from France, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States of America (S/23306, S/23307, S/23308, S/23309 and S/23317)

The agenda was adopted without objection.

The President announced that the current formulation of the agenda item had overtaken the earlier two formulations under which this item had been previously discussed, namely, items 168 and 173 of the list of matters of which the Security Council was seized, contained in document S/25070. He stated that since those items had been subsumed under the present item, they would, accordingly, be deleted from the list of matters contained in document S/25070.

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representatives of Egypt, the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya and the Sudan, at their request, to participate in the discussion of the item without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President drew attention to the text of a draft resolution contained in document S/26701 submitted, by France, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States of America.

The Council began its consideration of the item and heard statements by the representatives of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya and Egypt, and by the representative of the Sudan, speaking in his capacity as Chairman of the Group of Arab States for the month of November.

The Council then proceeded to the vote on the draft resolution (S/26701).

Decision: The draft resolution (S/26701) received 11 votes in favour, none against and 4 abstentions (China, Djibouti, Morocco and Pakistan) and was adopted as resolution 883 (1993).

The meeting was suspended.

Upon the resumption of the meeting, statements following the vote were made by the representatives of the United States, France, the United Kingdom, Brazil, China, the Russian Federation, Spain, Hungary, Venezuela, Japan and Pakistan.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Forty-eighth session

54th plenary meeting

Election of twenty-nine members of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme [16 (a)]

Since the number of candidates endorsed by the regional groups from among the African States, the Asian States, the Eastern European States, the Latin American and Caribbean States and the Western European and other States was equal to the number of seats allocated to each of those regions, Argentina, Brazil, Bulgaria, Burundi, Canada, China, Costa Rica, the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, France, Gabon, the Gambia, Germany, Guinea-Bissau, Hungary, Indonesia, Japan, Nicaragua, the Republic of Korea, the Russian Federation, Spain, the Sudan, Sweden, Switzerland, the Syrian Arab Republic, the United States of America, Venezuela, Zaire, Zambia and Zimbabwe were declared elected members of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme for a four-year term beginning on 1 January 1994.

The Assembly thus concluded its consideration of sub-item (a) of agenda item 16.

Election of twelve members of the World Food Council: note by the Secretary-General (A/48/368) [16 (b)]

Since the number of candidates nominated by the Economic and Social Council from among the African States, the Asian States and the Latin American and Caribbean States was equal to the number of seats allocated to each of those regions, Bangladesh, Brazil, China, Liberia, Malawi, Mexico, Pakistan and the Sudan were declared elected members of the World Food Council for a three-year term beginning on 1 January 1994.

With respect to the three seats to be filled from among the Western European and Other States, Turkey and the United States of America, the two candidates nominated by the Economic and Social Council, were declared elected members of the World Food Council for a three-year term beginning on 1 January 1994.

In view of the remaining two vacancies to be filled, one from among the Eastern European States and one from among the Western European and Other States, the Assembly decided to retain this sub-item on the agenda of the forty-eighth session.

Election of twenty members of the Committee for Programme and Coordination: note by the Secretary-General (A/48/369) [16 (c)]

Since the number of candidates nominated by the Economic and Social Council from among the African States, the Asian States, the Latin American and Caribbean States and the Western European and other States was equal to the number of seats allocated to each of those regions, Argentina, Brazil, Cameroon, Canada, Comoros, Congo, Cuba, Germany, India, Indonesia, Iran (Islamic Republic of), the Netherlands, Norway, Pakistan, Senegal, Trinidad and Tobago and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland were declared elected members of the Committee for Programme and Coordination for a three-year term beginning on 1 January 1994.

Regarding the Eastern European States, since the number of candidates nominated by the Economic and Social Council exceeded the number of vacancies allocated to that region, the General Assembly proceeded to a round of balloting to fill the three vacancies.

On the first round of balloting, having obtained the required majority and the largest number of votes, Romania, Ukraine and Belarus were elected members of the Committee for Programme and Coordination for a three-year term beginning on 1 January 1994.

The Assembly thus concluded its consideration of sub-item (c) of agenda item 16.

Appointment of members of the Committee on Conferences: note by the Secretary-General (A/48/107) [17 (g)]

The General Assembly took note of the appointment by the President of the General Assembly of Chile, Egypt, France, Gabon, Japan, Pakistan and the Russian Federation as members of the Committee on Conferences for a three-year term beginning on 1 January 1994.

The Assembly thus concluded its consideration of sub-item (g) of agenda item 17.
